City Breaks: Verona

Day 1 - Arrival

Arrival at the airport of Verona or Bologna or Venice, meeting with our local assistance that on the way to your hotel will give information and hints of the city. Verona is a great city for wandering the cobbled streets, admiring the designer shops and watching the world go by from a cafe terrace. In Piazza delle Erbe, the colorful market of the region's food. For art lovers, Verona's City Art Museum. The Lamberti tower, with breathtaking view over the rooftops, the Arena di Verona one of the most important open-air theatres in the world.

Day 2 – Verona

Breakfast in hotel, meeting with our local guide and full day visit of the city. The Basilica di San Zeno is best-known for being the very place that Shakespeare's ill-fated lovers – Romeo and Juliet – got married, but it's also worthy of a visit on merit of its architecture alone. Castelvecchio or 'old castle', a prominent example of gothic architecture located on the banks of the Adige River. Juliet's balcony, one of the most famous sights in Verona, has for many years seen tourists flock to get a glance at the spot where Romeo allegedly declared his eternal love. Piazza Bra and its own Roman Amphitheatre, the Arena di Verona that dominates the square providing a focal point for the cafes, restaurants, and boutiques. Torre dei Lamberti, the city's tallest medieval building and one of Italy's most inspiring monuments. The former center of Verona's power, the magnificent Piazza dei Signori. Free time for lunch during the excursion. Dinner and overnight in your hotel.

Day 3 – Verona and its Gardens

Breakfast in hotel, meeting with our local guide and full day visit of the city. Church of Santa Anastasia, designed in the Gothic style and built back in 1280, with beautiful features including dramatic frescoes, hand-painted ceilings and elaborate baptistery fonts. Ponte Pietra, Verona's oldest bridge built by the Romans back in 100 BC to provide easy access to and from the city's Amphitheatre. Piazzale Castel San Pietro a medieval fortress set high on a hilltop above the city; the views from the surrounding terrace are the main reason to make the calorie-burning climb. Giusti Gardens, surrounding the grand Piazza Giusti, are often considered to be one of Italy's finest formal gardens. Mozart visited them during his illustrious career, and the romantic designs are said to provide endless love for couples who take a stroll through the grounds. Free time for lunch during the excursion. Dinner and overnight in your hotel.

Day 4 – Departure

At the appropriate time a private car/van or coach will return us to the airport to take our return flight home after a very varied tour.
